A record in transferring an office was made yesterday when Treasurer Agent Thomas, former Collector Drake and Collector Charles Cottrill formally completed the transfer by which the latter takes full charge of the office of collector of internal revenue in this district.

The transfer of the books was con menced on the seventeenth, two days being occupied in checking and balanc-ing, the accounts being found absolute-ly correct in every particular, not vary-ing a fraction of a cent either way, while the amount of stamps on hand

Agent Thomas praised Drake and his assistants for the work performed and the condition of the office in every rework performed by them in the trans-fer proceedings.

C. R. Hemenway, former attorney general, who had himself once refused general, who had himself once refused an application for a writ of quo warranto, was against any change in the law. He said it was not the purpose of a quo warranto to redress a private wrong, but to protect the public.

Attorney General Lindsay spoke briefly, remarking that he had refused one writ and had applied for the one which was refused, consequently he might well be called the "refusor" in one case and the "refusee" in the other.

Then Ashford in rebuttal, got in a "The four largest legal firms in town are represented here, and they seem to be afraid of this bill," he remarked.

Record for Radicalism. "Is not this the most radical bill of the kind ever proposed in the United States?" asked Chairman Castle. "Well, what's the matter with Ha waii leading the band once in a while?" retorted Ashford.

Representative Sheldon asked General Manager Ballentyne right out if he had Manager Baientyne right out if he had violated any clauses in the rapid transit railroad franchise, and Bailentyna said they had not and started to tell the name of the man (said to be Hustace) who was behind the prosecution and the bill, but was not permitted to do so by the chairman.
